

Esperanto ESSENTIALS

YOUR PORTAL TO EASY INTERNATIONAL COMMUNICATION

WHAT IS IT?

Esperanto is a language, developed (back in 1887!) specifically to enable easy communication between people who have different native languages. It was designed to be learnt very quickly, and is logical and regular, while retaining the capability of rich and creative expression.

This means that instead of forcing someone to spend years learning English, or you spending years learning a foreign language, you both just spend a few months learning Esperanto, and neither of you feel any inequality. It's also been proven to help you learn other languages, so it's an advantage any way you look at it!

WHAT IT ISN'T:

A place in Western Australia

That's Esperance. Although, the town was named after the French ship the Espérance, which means "hope" – and the name of the language Esperanto means "one who hopes" – so there's a bit of a link!

Spanish

That's Español. However, if you speak Spanish you'll recognise the Esperanto verb "iri" (to go).

The bad guy in Die Hard 2

That's Esperanza – but guess what is Spanish for "hope"? Zamenhof, the creator of Esperanto, tried to create root words that would be recognisable across as many languages as possible – so the root of all Esperanto's words to do with hope is "esper".

That language that died off

It's alive and well! Although Esperanto speakers faced persecution under Nazi Germany and Stalinist Soviet Union due to the regimes' view of Esperanto as a threat to their ideologies, the language survived and there are now clubs in over 120 countries worldwide.

HOW USEFUL IS IT?

There are many ways Esperanto can be useful to you:

Get a local perspective

Don't trust mainstream media to accurately report on situations in other countries? Want to know where the locals eat at your next tourist destination? Curious about cultural differences? Esperanto gives you contacts around the globe who can expand your knowledge and world view.

Unlock cheap travel

Once you're fluent, sign up to "Pasporta Servo" and you'll have access to a world-wide network of willing hosts who offer free (or almost-free) accommodation, and who are usually more than happy to guide you around your destination.

Join international gatherings

Esperanto speakers love to get together and have fun, sharing their cultures, and enjoying music, lectures, shows and art. There are many events each year both in-person and virtually.

Exercise your brain, for free

Learning something new is great for your brain! There are many free resources online to teach yourself Esperanto, and many clubs around Australia and the world who will help you learn for little or no cost. You can even get started with this booklet! It has grammar, some lessons, exercises, and a mini dictionary. You'll be making sentences in no time!

Make new friends

The Esperanto community is very open and welcoming, so there are many new friends to make. And no promises, but we have had to coin a term for when people meet through Esperanto and get married! (Edz-peranto, if you're interested)

HOW CAN I LEARN IT?

Using this booklet

It won't get you to full fluency, but it will get you a surprising distance of the way there. Follow the instructions on the next page to get the most out of these pages.

On the internet

lernu.net has illustrated Esperanto lessons in over 30 languages.

kurso.com.br hosts a computer program which you can download to teach yourself Esperanto.

duolingo.com has Esperanto as one of its many languages

When you're ready to break out of beginner-mode, visit edukado.net/ekparolu to get access to "Aunts and Uncles" who will help you practice your conversation skills.

There are also many phone apps and dictionaries available, Anki is great for flashcards and has Esperanto decks available.

With books

Complete Esperanto by Tim Owen and Judith Meyer

Teach Yourself Esperanto by John Cresswell and John Hartley

Being Colloquial in Esperanto: A Reference Guide by David K. Jordan (available free online)

... and many, many others. Even if you find an ancient second-hand book it will still be relevant enough to successfully learn from.

With a teacher

Contact your local Esperanto Association – see details on the back of this booklet. Most major (and some minor) Australian cities have regular meetups and lessons. There is also an annual Esperanto Congress and Summer School, where you can immerse yourself in the language for a week with other speakers.

ABOUT THIS BOOKLET

It's all in your hands

Esperanto is so regular and logical that you already hold the bulk of it in your hands. The following sections are:

Grammar – yes, the entire basic grammar of Esperanto in this tiny booklet.

Exercises – a few questions – with answers – to give you a chance to train and practice.

Dictionary – a mini dictionary (two ways) of a few basic words to get you started.

Study plan

The Grammar and Exercises sections have numbered lessons. Each day, read a new lesson from the Grammar section, and follow up by completing the matching lessons from the Exercises section.

By dedicating just 15 minutes a day, after a week you'll be able to understand simple texts, and know how to put together several sentences. (The most handy one to start with will be: "Mi estas komencanto!" – I'm a beginner!).

Moving on to the main course

This is your taster. Once you've mastered the lessons here, dive into whatever else you can find on the internet. Join your local club (or start one!). Find a Discord group. Get yourself to an Esperanto Congress. Join one of the many events hosted on Zoom. (Visit meetup.com or eventaservo.org to find such meetups and events.)

The more you can interact with existing speakers, the better, as you'll learn faster and start to understand what the Esperanto community truly offers.

GRAMMAR

LESSON 1

Alphabet & Pronunciation

Every letter is pronounced in every word, everything is written exactly as it is pronounced. The emphasis is always on the second-last syllable of the word.

Esperanto has no Q, W, X or Y, but introduces Ĉ, Ĝ, Ĥ, Ĵ, Ŝ and Ü. Here are some pronunciations:

A ('ah', not 'ay') B, C ('ts' as in 'tsunami'), Ĉ ('ch'), D, E (always as in 'bet'), F, G (as in 'gag'), Ĝ (as in 'genie'), H, Ĥ (the 'ch' in 'loch'), I (as in 'machine'), J (the 'y' in 'yes'), Ĵ (the 's' in 'measure'), K, L, M, N, O, P, R (roll it a bit if you can), S, Ŝ ('sh'), T, U ('oo' as in 'moose'), Ŭ (as 'w' in 'woman'), V, Z. Combinations: AJ ('eye'), EJ (as in 'vein'), OJ (as in 'boy'), UJ (as in 'ruin'), AŬ ('ow'), EŬ (the 'ayw' in 'wayward').

eg. malliberejoj = mal-lib-er-AY-oy (prisons).

Word endings

Every noun ends in 'o' – parolo = speech.

Every adjective ends in 'a' – parola = oral.

Adverbs end in 'e' – parole = verbally.

Plural is made with a 'j' – paroloj = speeches.

Infinitive verbs with 'i' – paroli = to speak.

Articles

There is only one definite article, 'la' :

la parolo = the speech, la paroloj = the speeches.

There is no indefinite article (no 'a', 'an'):

parolo = a speech, paroloj = some speeches.

LESSON 2

Personal Pronouns

mi (I), vi (you, singular or plural), li (he), ŝi (she), gi (it), oni (one), ni (we), ili (they), si ('self' – reflexive pronoun).

By adding 'a' to these we get possessive adjectives: mia, via, ilia... = my/mine, your/yours, their/theirs...

Conjugation & Basic Verb Tenses

The same verb ending is used for all persons, in every tense – no irregular verbs:

+i – infinitive. Paroli = To speak.

+is – past. Vi parolis = You spoke.

+as – present. Mi parolas = I speak.

+os – future. Oni parolos = One will speak.

+us – conditional. Li parolus = He would speak.

+u – imperative. Ili parolu! / Ni parolu! / Parolu! =

They should speak! / Let's speak! / Speak!

Numbers

Cardinal: nul (0), unu (1), du (2), tri (3), kvar (4), kvin (5), ses (6), sep (7), ok (8), naŭ (9), dek (10), cent (100), mil (1000), miliono (million).

Eg. dek du (12), dudek unu (21), ducent (200), mil naŭcent sesdek ok (1968)

Ordinal = +a. Unua, dua... = first, second...

Adverb = +e. Unue, due... = firstly, secondly...

Noun = +o. Dekduo, dekoj = a dozen, tens.

Multiple = +obl+a. Duobla, triobla... = double, triple...

Fraction = +on+o. Duono, tri kvaronoj = half, 3/4

Group = +op+o. Duopo, triopo... = duo, trio...

LESSON 4

Questions

To make yes/no questions, we put 'ĉu' at the beginning of a sentence:

Ĉu li manĝas? = Is he eating? Jes, li manĝas = Yes, he's eating. Ne, li trinkas = No, he's drinking.

Negation

To make a negative sentence, we just need to insert the word 'ne' right before the word that it negates:

Mi ne kantas = I am not singing. Ne mi kantas = It is not me singing.

Accusative

In order to indicate that a noun is the object of a verb, we append ‘n’ to the noun – and also to its adjectives. The ‘n’ ending is also used with movement, measurements, and can be used when a preposition is omitted.

Mi trinkas akvon = I drink water.

En la parko/En la parkon = In the park/Into the park.

Du metrojn alta = Two meters tall.

Mi venos london = I'll come (on) Monday.

LESSON 5

Correlatives

	i- (some)	ki- (what)	ti- (that)	či- (every)	neni- (none)

+es ("...s")	ies someone's	kies whose	ties that one's	čies everyone's	nenies nobody's

Add “či” before the “ti” words for “this” instead of “that” (či tie = here). Add “ajn” to turn “some” into “any” or “what” into “whatever” (io ajn = anything, kie ajn = where ever)

Word Creation

Esperanto is a bit like Lego blocks. All you need to do is start combining pieces (affixes) on a solid base (root words), and you will create something new:

sam+temp+e (same + time + ly) = at the same time
mal+jun+ul+o+j (opposite-of-young + people) = elderly lern+ej+estr+o (learning + place + chief) = headmaster
